

2010

Dear Teachers,

As you may know, Senator Boxer is facing her toughest race yet. With only 19 days left until Election Day, it's now or never.

Various Government and Social Studies teachers throughout Los Angeles have asked if their students could take part in our campaign to gain an invaluable educational experience on one of the highest profile Senate races this election, earn extra credit, or fulfill class volunteer hours. We want to extend this opportunity to all local students and invite them to our state headquarters in Hollywood to volunteer.

The Boxer campaign needs volunteers to help with various projects in our Hollywood office. Volunteer hours are weekdays 9am-8pm, and weekends from 11am-6pm. Peak volunteer hours are Monday-Thursday 4-8pm.

Here is a video to share with your students courtesy of the President.

Now is the time to take action, please let us know if you and your students are available to help.

Thanks for all that you do.
