PETITION To the Governor of the State of California and the California State Legislature

PETITION NUMBER: 0221201477777777

WHEREAS: For more than 43 years, Proposition 13 has protected the security of home ownership and saved California taxpayers more than 528 billion dollars;

WHEREAS: The vast majority of California taxpayers want to protect Proposition 13, as demonstrated by Petition Campaigns like this one. California voters have also consistently affirmed Prop. 13 at the Ballot Box by, for example, rejecting the Prop. 15 "Split Roll" partial Proposition 13 repeal in 2020, and passing Prop. 218 in 1996 and Prop. 26 in 2010, both closing loopholes used to dodge Prop. 13; and...

WHEREAS: Bills introduced in the new legislative session, if adopted, could weaken key Proposition 13 taxpayer protections, like the two-thirds majority protection and the 1% cap, and even return Californians to skyrocketing property tax hikes based on a shifting real estate market.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That I (we), as voter(s) and Member(s) of the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association, petition you as our elected representatives to protect Proposition 13 by supporting HJTA's efforts to protect taxpayers from legislative action that threatens the letter, spirit or intent of Proposition 13.
